Controlled F.O.R.C.E. is a Minority Woman Owned Small Business located just outside of Chicago, IL. We have been providing a low-liability method of subject control for law enforcement, adult corrections, juvenile justice, security, and military across the nation since we became incorporated in 1997.

Our unique ability to develop training curriculums and standardizations that integrate into existing curriculum has time and again exceeded expectations of the Federal government. While retaining our core service of close range subject control training, Controlled F.O.R.C.E. continues to explore and develop improved methods for cost effectively delivering staff development content.
